CLASSIC MOVIES ON THE BIG SCREEN

SUNDAYS & WEDNESDAYS
CHECK THEATRE FOR SHOWTIMES

OCTOBER 22 & 25

GHOSTBUSTERS (1984)

New York City is experiencing a dramatic increase in paranormal activity, and Sigourney Weaver may have a demonic spirit living in her refrigerator. So who's she gonna call? This comedy blockbuster written by and starring Dan Aykroyd and Harold Ramis also stars Bill Murray as Dr. Peter Venkman, who along with his fellow parapsychologists tries to warn the mayor of the coming crisis. ("Dogs and cats, living together... mass hysteria!") Rated PG

OCTOBER 29 & NOVEMBER 1

THE SHINING (1980)

Stanley Kubrick directed what many consider one of the scariest movies ever. Jack Nicholson ("Here's Johnny!") is a writer who takes a job as a caretaker of an off-season hotel with a really...bad...past. He and his family are virtually alone in the spooky old building. Or are they? Shelly Duvall, as Nicholson's distraught wife, discovers her husband is turning into someone she barely recognizes. ("All work and no play make Jack a dull boy.") Rated R

NOVEMBER 5 & 8

BLAZING SADDLES (1974)

NOT your typical western. This politically incorrect 70's comedy from director Mel Brooks stars Cleavon Little as Sheriff Bart and Gene Wilder as the Waco Kid. Madeline Kahn plays saloon singer Lily von Shtupp ("Ooh...a wed wose. How womanti!") who falls for Sheriff Bart ("Oh, it's twue, it's twue!") Harvey Korman plays the villain whose name bears an unfortunate resemblance to that of movie star Hedy Lamarr. ("That's HEDLEY!") Rated R

BACK TO THE FUTURE PART II (1989)

The popular sequel to the sci-fi comedy blockbuster. Time-traveling teenager Marty McFly (Michael J. Fox) and Doc Brown (Christopher Lloyd) must go back again to November 12, 1955 ("temporal junction point of the entire space-time continuum"), this time to prevent an alternate universe in which a wealthy Biff (Thomas F. Wilson) corrupts the town of Hill Valley. ("Please, Marty. No one should know too much about their destiny.") Rated PG

HARRY POTTER & THE SORCERER'S STONE (2001)

Relive the magic (or experience the thrill for the first time) of seeing Harry Potter's first adventure on the big screen. Harry is a new student at Hogwart's School of Witchcraft & Wizardry, where he must face the dreaded "He Who Must Not Be Named." Daniel Radcliffe stars as the 11-year-old wizard destined for greatness, and Rupert Grint and Emma Watson play his best friends Ron and Hermione. ("She needs to sort out her priorities!") Rated PG

HOME ALONE (1990)

The hit comedy starring Macaulay Culkin as Kevin McCallister, an 8-year-old boy who is mad at his family and wishes they would disappear. When they accidentally leave for Christmas vacation without him, he gets his wish. But he finds being "home alone" isn't all fun and games (or is it?) when two bungling burglars (Joe Pesci and Daniel Stern) force him to defend his house. ("You guys give up? Or are you thirsty for more?") Rated PG
